Reduce Blue Jay's catchment even more. We are bursting at the seams. Every available space is used, no place to gather, no access to MPR, our many high needs students lost sensory room, playground too crowded to be safe. We desperately need more space!

Do not want an increase in class sizes or classes to be held in portables. The new students need to be split with another school such as Bluejay or Harry sayers.

Blue already has overfilled classes. New catchment area should be sent to Dave Kendall to keep the enrollment up.
