

Staff Report

December 10, 2024

To Board of Education (Public Meeting)
From Sean Nosek, Superintendent/CEO
Re Curriculum Department – Strategic Plan Progress Report

This report is presented to the Board for Information.

BACKGROUND:

The Curriculum Department has made significant progress in early learning and childcare, literacy, numeracy, language and literacy strategies, and technology integration. Key successes include increased childcare spaces, the creation of a Literacy Framework, the release of learning progressions for K-5, and high engagement in mentorship programs. Emerging areas of need include cultivating a culture of reading, recruiting specialized language teachers, and implementing the Literacy Framework.

Tracy Kryz, Director of Instruction, Curriculum will update the Board on progress in specific areas of the District's Strategic Plan. The Curriculum Department focuses its strategy on the areas of Student Success and Engaging Opportunities. The strategic objectives associated with the Curriculum Department's operational plan will be reviewed, key successes will be highlighted, emerging areas of need will be discussed, and a look ahead at some future plans such as continued support for early career teachers, expanding residency models, and strengthening community connections will be presented.
